

How to become an occupational health physician?

Ali Hashtroudi

Head of National School of OH, HEE

Clinical Director OHS, GSTT

Honorary Senior Lecturer, KCL

Developing people for health and healthcare

Types of OHP

- Specialist
 - Consultant
- Non-specialist with qualification
- Certificates
- ...

Specialist - CCT

- Eligibility
 - ST3
 - GP
- Interview
- Benchmarking
- Progression
 - ARCP
 - Dissertation
 - Exams

Specialist - CESR

- Evidence of supervised training
- Evidence of other competencies
- GMC/ FOM
- Contact Faculty of Occupational Medicine
training@fom.ac.uk

Where to train

- NHS
- Non-NHS
- Military
-
- Cons and pros
- All to the same curriculum, same quality

Role of NSOH

Quality assurance of training

- National interview
- National ARCP
- Accreditation of posts (GMC)
- Accreditation of supervisors (GMC)
- Trainees and trainers' support
- Trainee in difficulty

FAQs

- Find training posts
 - BMJ career, HEE/ NSOH website, SOM, LinkedIn
- Can do part time (LTFT 50% or more)
- Can work whilst training
- Prep for interview, be familiar with the specialty
 - Meetings
 - Attachment/ observer (contact NSOH or FOM)

Non- specialist qualifications

- AFOM
- Advanced diploma
- Diploma

Certificates

- Ionising radiation
- HAVS
- Diving
- ...

Difference

Thank you

- Ali.hashtroudi@hee.nhs.uk